

---

---

Highest paid San Antonio city employees mostly firefighters and police

By Kolten Parker

March 19, 2014 | Updated: March 19, 2014 10:25am

SAN ANTONIO — More than 400 of the city's 500 highest paid employees are firefighters or police, and many of those pulled in six figures in total compensation last year.

The San Antonio Express-News' city hall reporter Josh Baugh acquired the data Monday and found 40 of the 73 employees who earn more than $150,000 are public safety personnel.

Browse the database here.

Many of the employees have a base pay under $100,000 but earn tens of thousands of dollars in overtime. Jesse Renteria, a fire captain, earned the most overtime last year at $93,730. Three other fire department heads pulled in more than $80,000 in overtime.

The data includes base pay, overtime, vacation buy back, specialty pay and other stipends.

The highest paid city employee is City Manager Sheryl Sculley, who earns more than $414,000.

Browse our database of the 500 highest paid city employees and read Baugh's story for more detailed analysis on ExpressNews.com.

kparker@express-news.net

City employee database

Police, firefighters well compensated

---

RELATED

▸ Fire and police are well-compensated, analysis shows